

Health Care Reform Information For Employers

As an Employer, how does federal health care reform affect me?

- ◆ The Affordable Care Act (ACA) does not require employers to provide health insurance benefits to employees.
- ◆ Larger employers (50 or more full time equivalent employees), however, will be responsible for a “shared responsibility payment” beginning in 2015 if these employers do not make “affordable” health insurance with “minimum essential coverage” available to employees. The payment was originally to begin in 2014 and was delayed until 2015. To find out more information about the Shared Responsibility Payment, visit: www.healthcare.gov.
- ◆ Smaller employers (49 or fewer employees) are not subject to penalties.
- ◆ Employers with fewer than 25 employees, an average wage up to $50,000, and who pay at least half of the employees’ health insurance premiums may be eligible for a health insurance tax credits. For more information on tax credits, visit www.irs.gov.
- ◆ The calculation of full time equivalent employees takes into account full time, part time and seasonal employees. For an example of this calculation, visit the Wyoming Department of Insurance website <http://doi.wyo.gov> and click on the “Affordable Care Act” button.
- ◆ Self-insured employer groups are NOT subject to many of the market reforms of the ACA. However, there are requirements of the ACA that do apply to self-insured groups. Self-insuring employers should contact their third party administrator or other advisors for additional information.
- ◆ Self-employed individuals will be able to purchase individual coverage. Visit the Wyoming Insurance Department’s website for information regarding individual options and responsibilities under the ACA.

How do I purchase health insurance for my employees?

- ◆ Employers of any size may purchase insurance through the traditional insurance market by contacting an insurance agent or insurance company.
- ◆ Small employers (1 to 50 employees) have the option to purchase insurance through the federal Small Business Health Options Program (SHOP). Beginning in 2014, you must purchase health insurance through the SHOP marketplace to be eligible for the credit. For further information on the tax credit, visit www.irs.gov.
- ◆ The SHOP is a federal marketplace where employers may choose insurance coverage and contribution levels. In 2014, employers will be able to select one insurance plan to offer employees. Beginning in 2015, employees will be able to choose among plans offered on the SHOP marketplace.
- ◆ The market reforms created by the ACA will apply to the market inside and outside the SHOP marketplace.
- ◆ To access the SHOP marketplace, visit www.healthcare.gov.

When do I purchase health insurance for my employees?

- ◆ The initial open enrollment for small employers begins October 1, 2013. Health insurance coverage will begin January 1, 2014.
