Dear Mr. Hagle:

The Wyoming Department of Insurance hereby denies your application for a nonresident producer license for property and casualty lines of authority. This denial is based on Wyo. Stat. § 26-9-211, which authorizes the commissioner to refuse to issue a license to anyone violating any insurance laws, or violating any regulation and for improperly withholding, misappropriating or converting any monies or properties received in the course of doing insurance business. Wyoming Statute § 26-9-211 also authorizes the commissioner to refuse to issue a license to anyone who used fraudulent, coercive or dishonest practices or demonstrates incompetence, untrustworthiness or financial irresponsibility in the conduct of business. In addition, Wyo. Stat. § 26-9-219 states that, "to be licensed as an adjuster the applicant shall . . . be trustworthy and of good reputation." It is the standard practice of this Department to deny the issuance of a license until the completion of all settlement conditions in an administrative action.

The Consent Order in your administrative action shows that your suspension will end on July 16, 2014. In order to be considered for licensing in Wyoming, you must wait until your administrative action is complete and reapply.

Please be advised that this license denial may be reportable to any state in which you currently hold a license, as well as on any applications you submit in the future.

The fee submitted for the licensing application are non-refundable pursuant to Wyo. Stat. § 26-4-101. You have a right to appeal this denial by requesting a hearing pursuant to Wyo. Stat. § 26-2-125. A request for hearing must be made within 90 days of the date of this letter and should make reference to or include a copy of this denial letter. A request for hearing should be directed to my attention.

Sincerely,
