DEFAULT JUDGMENT AND ORDER

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER came before the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to an Application for Default Judgment filed herein by the above-named Petitioner; and the Insurance Commissioner having examined said Application and the affidavit filed in support thereof, and being duly advised in the premises, does hereby make and enter the following findings and order:

1. This matter was commenced on October 11, 2007, by the filing of a Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause. The Insurance Commissioner reviewed said Petition and issued a Notice and Order to Show Cause, filed herein on October 11, 2007. The Petition and Notice and Order to Show Cause were served on the above-named Respondent on October 11, 2007, when said documents were placed in the United States Mail, both by regular First Class and certified mail, return receipt requested, and addressed to the Respondent at her last known address.

2. Respondent received the Petition and Notice and Order to Show Cause on or about October 13, 2007, as shown by the certified mail return receipt filed with the Wyoming Insurance Department.

3. The Notice and Order to Show Cause directed the Respondent to file an answer or other responsive pleading within twenty (20) days after October 11, 2007, the effective date of service of the Petition and Notice upon the Respondent. More than twenty (20) days have elapsed since the effective date of service.

4. Since the Respondent has failed to answer or otherwise plead or appear in this matter, the allegations set forth in the Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause filed herein on October 11, 2007, shall be and the same are hereby deemed to be true.

5. The facts alleged in the Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause, that are deemed to be true, are sufficient to establish grounds for the revocation of the Respondent's insurance producer license pursuant to Wyo. Stat. § 26-1-107 and Wyo. Stat. § 26-9-211.

6. Pursuant to the Wyoming Department of Insurance Rules and Regulations, Chapter 32 §§ 7 and 9, entry of default in this matter is appropriate and such default should therefore be entered.
