DEFAULT JUDGMENT AND ORDER

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER came before the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to a Petition for Default Judgment of the Commissioner filed herein by the above-named Petitioner; and the Insurance Commissioner having examined said petition and the affidavit filed in support thereof, and being duly advised in the premises, does hereby make and enter the following findings and order:

1. This matter was commenced on December 22, 2008, by the filing of a Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause. The Insurance Commissioner reviewed said Petition and issued a Notice and Order to Show Cause, filed herein on December 22, 2008. The Petition and Notice and Order to Show Cause were served on the above-named Respondent on December 22, 2008, when said documents were placed in the United States Mail, both by regular first class and certified mail, return receipt requested, and addressed to the Respondent at the address listed in her Application for Adjuster License.

2. Respondent has failed to pick up the certified mail, and on January 3, 2009, it was returned to the Department marked, "Return to Sender, Attempted – Not Known, Unable to Forward." The Petition and Notice and Order to Show Cause which were mailed by regular first class mail have not been received back in the Department as of the day of this order.

3. The Notice and Order to Show Cause directed the Respondent to file an answer or other responsive pleading within twenty (20) days after December 22, 2008, the effective date of service of the Petition and Notice upon the Respondent. More than twenty (20) days have elapsed since the effective date of service.

4. Since the Respondent has failed to answer or otherwise plead or appear in this matter, the allegations set forth in the Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause filed herein on December 22, 2008, shall be and the same are hereby deemed to be true.

5. The facts alleged in the Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause, that are deemed to be true, are sufficient to establish grounds for the revocation of the Respondent's insurance producer license pursuant to Wyo. Stat. § 26-1-107 and Wyo. Stat. § 26-9-211.

6. Pursuant to the Wyoming Department of Insurance Rules and Regulations, Chapter 32 §§ 7 and 9, entry of default in this matter is appropriate and such default should therefore be entered.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED as follows:

1. The Default of Respondent Jeddie D. Carnes, Jr. is entered.
2. The allegations against Respondent as stated in the Petition and Notice and Order to Show Cause in this matter are taken as and are assumed to be true and correct.
3. Based upon the allegations contained in the Petition and Notice and Order to Show Cause, the application for an adjuster license is denied, pursuant to Wyo. Stat. § 26-9-211(a)(iii) and (viii).
4. A civil penalty in the amount of $100.00 is assessed against Respondent should she ever re-apply for licensing in the state of Wyoming.

Dated this 16th day of January, 2009.

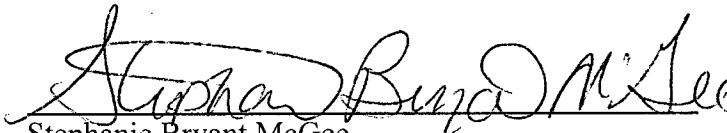

Kenneth G. Vines
Insurance Commissioner
State of Wyoming
