Docket No. 11-14

DEFAULT JUDGMENT AND ORDER

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER came before the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to a Petition for Default Judgment filed herein by the above-named Petitioner; and the Insurance Commissioner having examined said petition and the affidavit filed in support thereof, and being duly advised in the premises, does hereby make and enter the following findings and order:

1. This matter was commenced on October 25, 2011, by the filing of a Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause. The Insurance Commissioner reviewed said Petition and issued a Notice and Order to Show Cause, filed herein on October 28, 2011. The Petition and Notice and Order to Show Cause were served on the above-named Respondent on October 28, 2011, when said documents were placed in the United States Mail, certified mail, return receipt requested, and addressed to the Respondent at his last known address.

2. The Notice and Order to Show Cause directed the Respondent to file an answer or other responsive pleading within twenty (20) days after October 28, 2011, the effective date of service of the Petition and Notice upon the Respondent. More than twenty (20) days have elapsed since the effective date of service.

3. Since the Respondent has failed to answer or otherwise plead or appear in this matter, the allegations set forth in the Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause filed herein on October 28, 2011, shall be and the same are hereby deemed to be true.

4. The facts alleged in the Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause, that are deemed to be true, are sufficient to establish grounds for the revocation of the Respondent's insurance producer license pursuant to Wyo. Stat. § 26-1-107 and Wyo. Stat. § 26-9-211.

5. Pursuant to the Wyoming Department of Insurance Rules and Regulations, Chapter 32 §§ 7 and 9, entry of default in this matter is appropriate and such default should therefore be entered.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED as follows:

1. The Default of Respondent Jason M. Perez is entered.
2. The allegations against Respondent as stated in the Petition and Notice and Order to Show Cause in this matter are taken as and are assumed to be true and correct.

Docket No. 11-14

PETITION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

COMES NOW the Petitioner, acting by and through Stephanie Bryant McGee, Deputy Commissioner, and, pursuant to § 9, Chapter 32, of the Regulations of the Wyoming Insurance Department, herewith applies for the entry of an Order of the Commissioner. In support thereof, Petitioner states and alleges as follows:

1. This matter was commenced on October 25, 2011, by the filing of a Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause. The Insurance Commissioner reviewed said Petition and issued a Notice and Order to Show Cause on October 28, 2011. The Petition and Notice and Order to Show Cause were served on the above-named Respondent on October 28, 2011, when said documents were placed in the United States Mail, certified, return receipt requested, and addressed to the Respondent at his last known business and residential addresses.

2. Respondent failed to pick up the certified mail which was mailed to his residential address, although the United States postal service Track & Confirm website shows that delivery was attempted on November 1, 2011. The mailing to his business address was returned to the Department marked, "Return to Sender, No Longer Employed."

3. The Notice and Order to Show Cause directed the Respondent to file an answer or other responsive pleading within twenty (20) days after October 28, 2011, the effective date of service of the Petition and Notice upon the Respondent. More than twenty (20) days have elapsed since the effective date of service.

4. Since the Respondent has failed to answer or otherwise plead or appear in this matter, the insurance commissioner may, pursuant to § 9, Chapter 32 of the Regulations of the Wyoming Insurance Department, deem the allegations in the Petition to be true and enter an order accordingly.

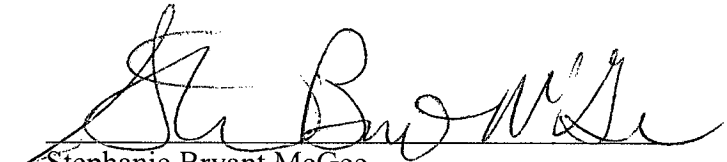

5. The facts alleged in the Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause, if deemed to be true, are sufficient to establish grounds for the revocation of the Respondent's nonresident producer license pursuant to Wyo. Stat. § 26-1-107 and Wyo. Stat. § 26-9-211.

Docket No. 11-14

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF PETITIONER'S APPLICATION FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT

I, Stephanie Bryant McGee, being first duly sworn upon my oath, depose and state as follows:

1. I am the deputy commissioner for Petitioner, the Wyoming Insurance Department.
2. Respondent was issued a nonresident producer license by the Wyoming Department of Insurance on March 12, 2010, and such license is subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Insurance.
3. A Petition for Notice and Order to Show Cause and Notice and Order to Show Cause seeking revocation of Respondent's Wyoming license due to the fact that he was no longer licensed in his home state of Florida, were duly served upon Respondent on October 28, 2011, by placing copies of the same in the United States Mail, certified, return receipt requested, addressed to Respondent to both his residential and business addresses last of record with the Department. Pursuant to Wyo. Stat. § 26-2-126(c) "mailed notice is deemed to have been served when addressed to the person to be notified at his address last of record with the department and deposited, postage paid, in a mail depository of the United States post office."
4. Respondent failed, neglected or refused to interpose, answer or otherwise plead, and the last day for such answer or pleading has since passed.
5. All of the allegations contained in the Petition and the Notice and Order to Show Cause are true and correct, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

Further Affiant Sayeth Naught,

Dated this 22 day of November, 2011.
